

The FCC should no implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone privacy law protections, Since my name has been on the "no call" list I hardly ever receive calls from strangers. I feel that I have a right to my privacy under the United States Constitution